

Zeeshan Zakir

Website Developer | E-commerce Specialist

As an accomplished Web Developer with over three years of hands-on experience, my goal is to leverage my expertise in Content Management Systems (CMS) such as WordPress, Shopify, and OpenCart, along with a robust background in backend development using PHP and JavaScript. My primary focus is to contribute my technical proficiency and creative flair to build dynamic and user-friendly websites. With a strong foundation in Website UI/UX design, I aim to enhance the online presence of businesses and clients. Having successfully completed over 10+ projects as a freelancer, I am dedicated to delivering high-quality solutions that meet and exceed client expectations. I am enthusiastic about tackling new challenges and staying at the forefront of technological advancements in the ever-evolving web development landscape.
